1st Anniversary "OPENING" PRICES Again To-day!

Sincerity in Storekeeping. The first reading gives no idea of the great fundamental business truth hidden in that phrase. The sincere merchant will work in his patron's interest. The sincere clerk will give you the best suit in the house. The sincere merchant will tell you Double-treasted Sack the truth, not because it is right to do so, but because it will pay him best. So it is with our storekeeping. We do not mean

$8.50 UP. to be original. We simply mean to be right-to be honest with you about what we sell you, because it will be best for us. Wrong gets found out in time, so we have a purely selfish motive for doing right. It is the best policy. For this reason we say wool when it is wool-cotton when it is cotton-black when it is black-cheap when it is cheap-it doesn't fit when it doesn't fit, and also add that you can bring it back and get your money if you are not satisfied.

Every clerk in our establishment is a special partner in our business to this extent. His position and salary depend upon the number of friends he makes and the number of suits he sells, so you can plainly see it will pay him to please you rather than us, for to displease you would get him out of a job.

Trust us to give you the best we have always. When you feel you haven't had the worth of your money see us about it.
